SECTION 3 — RECITALS & BACKGROUND

- (A) The Insurer is duly authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth) and holds a current Australian Financial Services Licence to carry on insurance business in Australia.
- (B) The Named Insured applied for insurance cover on 22 February 2024 by submitting a signed Proposal Form (Reference: PRP-VLG-2024-00847), which is incorporated into and forms part of this Policy.
- (C) In reliance upon the representations and disclosures made in the Proposal Form and the payment of the agreed premium, the Insurer has agreed to provide insurance cover on the terms and conditions set out in this Policy.
- (D) The Insurer has assessed the risk and determined that the subject matter of the insurance — being the health and wellbeing of the Insured Persons and the residential property at the Insured Premises — is insurable and that cover may be granted.
- (E) Both parties intend this Policy to constitute a binding legal contract governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia, subject to applicable Commonwealth legislation including the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

SECTION 4 — DEFINITIONS

In this Policy, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms have the meanings set out below:

“Accident” means An unforeseen and unintended sudden event occurring at an identifiable time and place, resulting in Bodily Injury or Property Damage.

“Bodily Injury” means Physical harm, illness, sickness, or disease sustained by an Insured Person, including death resulting therefrom.

“Business Day” means Any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or Australian public holiday in the State of Victoria.

“Claim” means A formal written notification from the Insured to the Insurer requesting indemnification under this Policy.

“Co-payment” means The fixed dollar amount payable by the Insured per medical service event, as specified in Section 5.

“Deductible / Excess” means The first portion of any Loss payable by the Insured before the Insurer's obligations arise, as specified in the relevant coverage sections.

“Endorsement” means A written amendment, extension or modification to this Policy signed by an authorised officer of the Insurer.

“Exclusion” means A circumstance, event, cause or type of loss that is expressly not covered under this Policy, as listed in Section 8.

“Force Majeure Event” means An event beyond the reasonable control of a party, including acts of God, war, terrorism, pandemic, earthquake, flood, or government action.

“Insured Event” means An event described in the applicable coverage section which gives rise to an indemnifiable loss under this Policy.

“Insured Person(s)” means The Named Insured and any Additional Insured party listed in Section 2.3.

“Insured Premises” means The residential property located at 42 Banksia Grove, Doncaster East VIC 3109, being the principal place of residence of the Named Insured.

“Insurer” means Vantara Life & General Insurance PLC, ABN 47 382 910 553.

“Loss” means The financial amount of damage, liability, or expense suffered by the Insured as a result of an Insured Event, subject to the applicable Sum Insured and Policy terms.

“Material Fact” means Any information that would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in deciding whether to accept a risk or in determining the premium or terms applicable.

“Period of Insurance” means The period from the Effective Date to the Expiry Date as specified in the Policy Schedule.

“Pre-existing Condition” means Any injury, illness, disease, or condition for which an Insured Person received diagnosis, treatment, advice, or medication in the 36 months prior to the Effective Date.

“Premium” means The consideration payable by the Named Insured to the Insurer in exchange for the insurance cover provided under this Policy.

“Subrogation” means The right of the Insurer, following payment of a Claim, to pursue recovery against any third party legally responsible for the Loss.

“Sum Insured” means The maximum aggregate amount payable by the Insurer under a specific coverage section during the Period of Insurance.

“Waiting Period” means The initial period following the Effective Date during which specified benefits under the Health coverage are not payable.

Any claim lodged and accepted during the Period of Insurance will reset the NCD entitlement to zero.

7.4 Premium Adjustment Provisions

The Insurer reserves the right to adjust the premium at renewal based on claims experience, changes to regulatory levies, and CPI movements. The Insured shall be provided with a minimum of 30 days' written notice of any premium increase prior to the renewal date. Mid-term endorsements increasing coverage may attract an additional pro-rata premium calculated to the Expiry Date.

SECTION 8 — EXCLUSIONS

This Policy does NOT cover loss, liability, damage or expense directly or indirectly arising from or in connection with any of the following:

8.1 General Exclusions (all coverage sections)

- War, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether war is declared or not), civil war, insurrection, revolution or military coup.
- Nuclear, chemical, biological or radiological contamination or attack of any kind.
- Intentional, deliberate or fraudulent acts by any Insured Person.
- Loss arising from the Insured's failure to take reasonable precautions to prevent loss.
- Any loss arising from or attributable to any unlawful act by the Insured.
- Consequential or indirect losses of any kind, except where expressly covered.
- Any liability assumed by the Insured under contract beyond what would attach in law.
- Events occurring outside the territorial limits of Australia, except as expressly stated.
- Fines, penalties, punitive, aggravated or exemplary damages.
- Loss or damage caused by gradual deterioration, wear and tear, vermin, or inherent defect.

8.2 Health-Specific Exclusions

- Treatment for Pre-existing Conditions during the applicable waiting period.
- Cosmetic surgery or procedures not medically necessary.
- Experimental, unproven or investigational treatments not approved by the TGA.
- Treatment for self-inflicted injury, suicide attempt, or abuse of alcohol or non-prescribed substances.
- Infertility investigations and treatments (available as an optional Rider — Endorsement C3).
- Weight loss surgery or programs (bariatric procedures) unless medically necessitated.
- Overseas treatment beyond emergency care (trips exceeding 90 continuous days).
- Dental treatment arising from accidents covered separately under the Building/Contents section.
- Claims not supported by a referral from a registered Australian medical practitioner where required.
- Medicare-rebatable services where no gap charge applies (to avoid double recovery).

8.3 Property-Specific Exclusions

- Flood damage where the Insured Premises is located in a designated high-risk flood zone (refer to applicable ICA flood map).
- Damage caused by rising water from the sea, storm surge, tsunami, or tidal inundation.
- Structural damage caused by tree roots, or settlement, shrinkage or expansion of soil not caused by an Insured Event.
- Damage to fences, retaining walls or driveways caused by vehicles owned or operated by an Insured Person.
- Loss or damage to motor vehicles, caravans, trailers or watercraft.
- Theft of contents from an outbuilding unless that building is fitted with a deadlock and was locked at the time.
- Loss of cash, currency, or negotiable instruments exceeding AUD $500.
- Mechanical or electrical breakdown of appliances (not caused by an Insured Event).
- Loss or damage resulting from building works, renovations or alterations not notified to the Insurer.
- Asbestos removal, mould remediation or pollution clean-up costs (except as an endorsed optional benefit).

SECTION 9 — CONDITIONS & DUTIES OF THE INSURED

9.1 Duty of Disclosure

The Named Insured has a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), sections 21–21B, to disclose to the Insurer, before the Policy is entered into and at each renewal, every matter that the Insured knows to be relevant to the Insurer's decision to accept the risk. Failure to comply with this duty may entitle the Insurer to reduce or refuse a claim or cancel the Policy. This duty does not require disclosure of information the Insured could not reasonably be expected to know.

9.2 Notification of Change in Risk

The Insured must notify the Insurer in writing within 14 Business Days of any material change that increases the risk, including but not limited to: vacancy of the Insured Premises for more than 60 consecutive days; commencement of construction, demolition or renovation works; change in occupancy or use; and acquisition of high-value items exceeding AUD $10,000.

9.3 Duty to Prevent Loss

The Insured must at all times take all reasonable precautions to prevent or minimise loss, damage or liability. The Insured must maintain the Insured Premises in a good state of repair and comply with all relevant building codes, safety regulations and local authority requirements.

9.4 Cooperation with the Insurer

The Insured must cooperate fully with the Insurer and any appointed loss adjuster or investigators in relation to any claim or potential claim, including providing access to the Insured Premises, documents, receipts, medical records (where applicable), and any other relevant information.

9.5 Assignment

This Policy may not be assigned, transferred or novated by the Named Insured without the prior written consent of the Insurer. Any purported assignment without such consent shall be void and of no effect. The Insurer may assign its rights under this Policy as part of any lawful business restructure or transfer of insurance portfolio, subject to APRA approval.

9.6 Reinstatement

If cover lapses due to non-payment of premium, the Named Insured may apply for reinstatement within 60 days of the lapse date by paying all outstanding premiums plus an administration fee of AUD $55. The Insurer may require the Insured to complete a fresh health declaration prior to reinstatement. No cover exists during the lapse period.

SECTION 10 — CLAIMS PROCEDURE

10.1 Notification Requirements

The Insured must notify the Insurer of any claim or circumstances likely to give rise to a claim as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event:

- For Property claims (theft, burglary): within 24 hours of discovery, and a police report must be obtained within 48 hours.
- For Property claims (damage): within 7 days of the Insured Event.
- For Health claims: within 60 days of the date of service or discharge from hospital.
- For Liability claims: immediately upon receipt of any claim or legal proceeding.

10.2 How to Lodge a Claim

Claims may be lodged through any of the following channels:

- Online portal: www.vantarainsurance.com.au/claims (available 24/7)
- Phone: 1800 VANTARA (1800 826 827), Monday–Friday 8 AM–8 PM AEST; Saturday 9 AM–5 PM
- Email: claims@vantarainsurance.com.au (acknowledgement within 1 Business Day)
- Post: Claims Department, GPO Box 4471, Melbourne VIC 3001
- In-branch: Level 24, 333 Collins Street, Melbourne VIC 3000 (by appointment)

10.3 Required Documentation

All Claims	Completed Vantara Claim Form (Form VLG-CLM-01); Policy Number; Photo identification
Health — Hospital	Hospital account/invoice; Treating physician's discharge summary; Medicare explanation of benefits; Receipts for all out-of-pocket expenses
Health — Extras	Provider receipt with provider number; Service date and description; Medicare receipt (if applicable)
Property — Damage	Photos of damage; Repairer/builder quote(s); Proof of ownership for damaged items; Weather bureau confirmation (where relevant)
Property — Theft	Police event number; List of stolen items with purchase date/price; Receipts or bank statements; Serial numbers where available
Liability	Copy of third-party demand or legal proceedings; Details of the incident; Witness names and contact details

10.4 Claims Settlement

The Insurer will acknowledge all claims within 1 Business Day and provide a final decision within 10 Business Days of receiving all required documentation (complex property claims: up to 20 Business Days). Settlement will be made by electronic funds transfer to the Insured's nominated account within 5 Business Days of claim approval. Where the Insurer requires an independent assessment or loss-adjusting, the timeline will be communicated in writing.

10.5 Fraudulent Claims

If the Insured makes or causes to be made any claim which is in any respect fraudulent, false or exaggerated, or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by the Insured or anyone acting on behalf of the Insured to obtain any benefit under this Policy, all benefits under the Policy shall be forfeited, the Policy shall be cancelled without refund of premium, and the matter may be referred to law enforcement authorities.

SECTION 11 — SUBROGATION & RECOVERY RIGHTS

Upon payment of any claim under this Policy, the Insurer shall be subrogated to all the rights and remedies of the Insured against any third party in respect of the loss or damage indemnified. The Insured must, at the Insurer's expense, do all such acts and execute all such documents as the Insurer may reasonably require to enable the Insurer to exercise its subrogation rights. The Insured must not settle, compromise, assign or release any right of recovery without the prior written consent of the Insurer. Any amount recovered by the Insurer through subrogation shall first be applied to reimburse the Insurer's claim payment and costs, with any surplus returned to the Insured.

SECTION 12 — RENEWALS, AMENDMENTS & CANCELLATION

12.1 Renewal

This Policy will automatically renew for successive 12-month periods unless cancelled. The Insurer will issue a renewal notice not less than 21 days prior to the Expiry Date setting out the terms and premium for the forthcoming period. The Insured's acceptance of the renewal offer is confirmed by payment of the renewal premium.

12.2 Amendments / Endorsements

This Policy may only be amended, modified or varied by a written Endorsement signed by an authorised officer of the Insurer and attached to this Policy document. No oral representation, promise or agreement shall vary or supplement the terms of this Policy.

12.3 Cancellation by the Insured

The Named Insured may cancel this Policy at any time by providing written notice to the Insurer. Upon cancellation, the Insurer will retain the pro-rata premium for the period of cover provided, plus an administration fee of AUD $75, and refund the balance to the Named Insured within 10 Business Days, provided no claim has been made. During the cooling-off period (21 days from issue), a full refund will be given with no cancellation fee.

12.4 Cancellation by the Insurer

The Insurer may cancel this Policy in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), including for: (a) non-payment of premium; (b) material misrepresentation or non-disclosure by the Insured; (c) a fraudulent claim; or (d) an increase in risk that the Insurer is not prepared to cover. In all cases except fraud, the Insurer shall provide a minimum of 14 days' written notice by registered post or email.

SECTION 13 — BENEFICIARY & NOMINEE DESIGNATIONS

13.1 Nominated Beneficiaries

Primary Beneficiary	Ms. Priya Kamala Whitfield (Spouse) — 100% of death benefit
Contingent Beneficiary	Master Ethan Lucas Whitfield and Miss Olivia Rose Whitfield (equally, if primary beneficiary predeceases)
Estate Fallback	If no surviving named beneficiary, benefit payable to the Estate of the Named Insured

Beneficiary designations may be changed at any time by written request submitted to the Insurer and signed by the Named Insured. Changes take effect from the date received by the Insurer.

SECTION 14 — RIDERS & ENDORSEMENTS

The following optional riders and endorsements are attached to and form part of this Policy:

SECTION 15 — DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15.1 Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR)

If the Insured is dissatisfied with any decision made by the Insurer, the Insured should first contact the Insurer's Complaints Team: complaints@vantarainsurance.com.au or 1800 VANTARA. The Insurer will acknowledge the complaint within 1 Business Day and provide a final IDR response within 30 calendar days.

15.2 External Dispute Resolution (EDR)

If the Insured remains dissatisfied after the IDR process, the Insured may refer the dispute, at no cost, to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA):

AFCA Website	www.afca.org.au
AFCA Phone	1800 931 678 (free call)
AFCA Email	info@afca.org.au
AFCA Mail	GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001
Time Limit	Complaint must be referred within 2 years of the Insurer's final IDR response

15.3 Arbitration

Disputes not resolved through the IDR/EDR process may, by mutual written agreement of both parties, be referred to binding arbitration in Melbourne, Victoria, under the Commercial Arbitration Act 2011 (Vic). Each party shall bear its own costs unless the arbitrator directs otherwise.

SECTION 16 — GOVERNING LAW & JURISDICTION

This Policy is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Victoria, Australia, and applicable Commonwealth legislation including (without limitation) the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth), the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), and the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth). Each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Victoria and the Federal Court of Australia.

SECTION 17 — REPRESENTATIONS & WARRANTIES

17.1 Warranties by the Named Insured

- All information provided in the Proposal Form is true, complete and accurate in all material respects.
- The Named Insured is the legal owner or has an insurable interest in the Insured Premises.
- No Insured Person has been declined insurance coverage, had a policy cancelled, or been subjected to special terms by any insurer in the preceding 5 years, except as disclosed.
- The Named Insured is not aware of any pending claim, litigation or circumstance likely to give rise to a claim as at the Effective Date, except as disclosed.
- All Insured Persons who are adults have been informed of and consent to the collection and use of their personal data in accordance with Vantara's Privacy Policy.

17.2 Warranties by the Insurer

- The Insurer is duly authorised and licensed to carry on general and health insurance business in Australia.
- The Insurer will act in utmost good faith in assessing and processing all claims.
- The Insurer holds adequate financial reserves in accordance with APRA's capital adequacy requirements.

SECTION 18 — INDEMNIFICATION & LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

18.1 Limitation of Insurer's Liability

The Insurer's total aggregate liability under this Policy during the Period of Insurance shall not exceed the Sum Insured applicable to each coverage section as set out in this Policy. Payment of the maximum Sum Insured in respect of any one section shall exhaust the Insurer's liability under that section for the remainder of the Period of Insurance unless reinstated by written endorsement.

18.2 Indemnification of the Insurer

The Named Insured agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Insurer and its officers, employees and agents against any loss, cost or expense arising directly from any misrepresentation, fraudulent act or omission by the Insured in connection with this Policy.

SECTION 19 — CONFIDENTIALITY & PRIVACY

The Insurer collects and handles personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles. Personal and health information of Insured Persons will be used solely for the purposes of administering this Policy, assessing claims, and regulatory compliance. The Insurer will not sell or disclose personal information to unrelated third parties without consent, except as required by law. A copy of Vantara's Privacy Policy is available at www.vantarainsurance.com.au/privacy.

SECTION 20 — FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party shall be in breach of this Policy or liable for any delay or failure to perform obligations (other than payment obligations) to the extent caused by a Force Majeure Event. The party affected must notify the other in writing as soon as practicable upon becoming aware of a Force Majeure Event. If the Force Majeure Event continues for more than 60 consecutive days, either party may terminate this Policy upon 14 days' written notice without penalty.

SECTION 21 — SEVERABILITY & ENTIRE AGREEMENT

21.1 Severability

If any provision of this Policy is found by any court or regulatory authority to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable, that provision shall be severed from the Policy and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

21.2 Entire Agreement

This Policy document (including all Schedules and Endorsements attached hereto), the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS v7.2 dated 1 January 2024), and the signed Proposal Form (Ref: PRP-VLG-2024-00847) constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter and supersede all prior negotiations, representations, warranties, understandings or agreements, whether written or oral.
